Role Purpose
(This section summarises the key function of the role)

Constables play a critical front-line role in the prevention and detection of crime and the criminal justice system. Constables work in partnership on a day-to-day basis with local communities, stakeholders, and colleagues in order to promote law and order, reduce the fear of crime, provide reassurance, and build confidence to improve the quality of life for citizens.

This role carries legal powers to enable the maintenance of law and order and bears responsibility for making autonomous decisions in accordance with the National Decision Model and Code of Ethics, exercising professional discretion, as appropriate to the role, in line with legal frameworks and policy guidelines.

Constables are required to meet and maintain the highest professional standards required of their role, by conducting all actions in a legal, balanced, proportionate, and justifiable manner to uphold the law and achieve the best outcomes in a wide range of situations/incidents.

Key Accountabilities
(This section details the key responsibilities required of the role)

- Provide appropriate initial and ongoing frontline response to a wide range of incidents that may include complex and confrontational situations, assessing immediate risk, threat, and harm to determine a proportionate response in line with the law, policy, and guidance.
- Take a leading role in establishing effective localised partnerships to problem solve, engage with, reassure, and support organisations, groups, and individuals across communities in line with the Force's planned approach.
- Effectively engage with victims, witnesses, suspects, the vulnerable, in accordance with equality, diversity, and human rights considerations, to provide initial support, direct towards relevant services, establish relationships, and gather information that prevents and reduces crimes.
- Maintain awareness of potential and actual risks to individuals, taking appropriate action to protect and support those in need of public protection to pre-empt or effectively address safety/vulnerability issues.
- Conduct effective and efficient priority and high-volume investigations as requested in line with standards of investigation to inform the development of high quality case files and initiation of criminal justice proceedings.
Gather and handle information, intelligence, and evidence, from a variety of sources, in line with legislation, policies and guidance, taking the appropriate action to support investigations, law enforcement and criminal justice proceedings.

Interview victims, witnesses and suspects in relation to appropriate crimes and investigations, to gather information that has the potential to support law enforcement objectives.

Conduct first line analysis of information, intelligence and evidence to determine significance, generate lines of enquiry, inform decision making and support evidence based policing.

Justify and professionally account for actions to ensure adherence to legal frameworks and key working principles, policies and guidance.

Identify opportunities for and support the exploration of new ways of working and innovation in policing, applying critical thinking to identify solutions to problems in line with evidence based practice within own area of work.

Support the implementation of evidence based policing initiatives by championing and applying relevant approaches to own, the team’s and/or stakeholder practice.

Behaviours

(Outlines the behavioural requirements of the role)

All roles are expected to know, understand and act within the ethics and values of the Police Service.

The Competency and Values Framework (CVF) has six competencies that are clustered into three groups. Under each competency are three levels that show what behaviours will look like in practice.

It is suggested that this role should be operating or working towards the following levels:
